

A WEEK'S NEWS.

Gleaned by Telegraph and Mail

FROM WASHINGTON.

Acting Secretary of the Interior John Jay has rendered a decision of the utmost importance. He has decided that seven years' absence may be held as proof presumptive of a soldier's death, and that proof shall warrant the issue of a pension to the family if the soldier's death is proved.

The President has recommended Thursday, November 30th, as a day of general thanksgiving.

Proclamations in the army, consequent upon the retirement of Maj. Gen. Irwin McDowell, have been announced by the President, as follows: Brig. Gen. A. J. Pope to be Major General, and Col. H. H. Henshaw to be Major General, and to be Brigadier General.

The President has appointed Wm. S. Smith, of New York, Edward Kinsley, of Massachusetts, and Delbert C. Tripp, of Rhode Island, Commissioners to examine the report upon the miles of road constructed by the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company in the Indian Territory and Arizona.

A. B. Miller, at one time Superintendent of the Treasury, but whose connection with that department has been recognized since 1877, formally tendered his resignation a few days ago as Superintendent of Construction for Public Buildings in St. Louis and other cities. His action is regarded as a preliminary step in asserting a claim compensation from 1877 to the date of his formal resignation.

Dr. George M. Beard of New York, one of the signers of the petition for a stay of proceedings in the Gulfian case, which was presented to the President in June last, shortly before the prisoner was hanged, has written a letter to Attorney General Brewster, in which he says: "The Attorney General's opinion in reply to the petition for a stay of proceedings contains two very important statements of facts."

The house of Gen. Sturgis, at the Soldiers' Home, in Washington, was recently robbed of $5,000 worth of diamonds, silks, lace, velvet, etc. The trunk of a French gentleman in the employ of H. L. Dousman, of Wisconsin, Gen. Sturgis' son-in-law, who with his wife were visiting the General, were found packed with the missing property. Three thousand dollars' worth of diamonds were not recovered.

The Postoffice Department decides that the privilege accorded to holders of second-class mail matter, namely, to print upon the wrapper of the periodicals the request that if the same be not called for in a limited time it may be delivered to any one of a class of persons named, cannot be extended to include the privilege of sending a letter to a friend.

Formerly a member of the Star Route jury, has been arrested and given bonds for $5,000. He is charged with an early trial.

Judge Adams, District Judge, in reply to an inquiry of the Secretary of War, takes the ground that officers of the army when they refuse to pay their debts are liable to the process of common law for the same as civilians, and that when their assets are insufficient to satisfy the debt, they are liable to imprisonment.

A man named Thomas Talbot was fatally shot by his wife at Cheyenne, W. T., during a quarrel, his wife claims in self-defense. Talbot is about 35 years old and has nine children.

Taylor Fielders, a young man residing near Cole Camp, Barton County, Mo., was accidentally shot by John Smith, a hunter, while out on a recent hunt. Fielders was one of the men in the party, and was killed by a bullet from the gun of John Smith.

The total output of coal for the State of Iowa from July 1, 1881, to July 1, 1882, was 2,127,700 tons; average price per ton for mining, 90 cents, making the total earnings of $1,914,930. The average price per ton for the State was 85 cents.

A man named Frank Stoker was perhaps fatally injured by a horse on the night of the 20th inst. He was coupling an engine to a freight car on a Missouri Pacific track, and his head was caught and crushed. He had been reading but about two months.

While five men in the prison at the State Prison at Lansing, Mich., were overtaken by an East bound night express near the Canadian border, three jumped off safely, the other two were thrown with the car into a ditch. Jerry Ryan was killed instantly and his brother fatally injured.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stahler, of No. 435 West Huron street, Chicago, succeeded recently by hanging.

The child of Lewis Walker, of Dayton, Ohio, was killed by the meeting of the street.

John W. Wetzel and Bill, of Racine (Wis.), having engaged in a race for a vessel the night of the 20th inst. The race continued for some miles, when the boiler of the vessel exploded, throwing the entire upper works and bodies of the crew in the air, striking together with the hull of the craft. The crew of the vessel consisted of Capt. Frank Lovell, Race Engineer, Wm. Kelly, Chicago, Fireman, and John W. Wetzel, of Racine, Wis. The vessel was a medium-sized harbor tug, valued at $5,000.

The jury in the Mrs. Scoville insanity case at Chicago, declared her to be insane, and that insanity was hereditary in her family. After the verdict was given, the jury was informed that some of her friends had brought their intention of taking her off to Canada.

Trucks, near, suffered from a disastrous fire on the night of the 20th inst. Among the buildings destroyed were the American Hotel, Sherburne House and Old Fellows' Building. The loss will probably be upward of $100,000, the loss of which is covered by insurance.

A special from Washington says: "The three-story brick building of the Bank of Montreal, also occupied by the general offices of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was damaged by fire to the extent of $100,000; Railroad company's loss, $40,000.

Frank A. Crowl, Assistant Postmaster at Wallersburg, Pa., has been arrested for rifling registered letters. There have been very heavy losses in registered mail in transit through that office.

Fire caused by spontaneous combustion destroyed two manufacturing buildings employing fifty hands at the Wellington House at Jamestown, N. Y.

The Flint Mill at Fall River, Mass., was completely destroyed by fire on the evening of the 20th. When first discovered the flames were issuing from the loft of the main mill, and the fire spread rapidly to the upper story, and in less than half an hour the entire mill was in flames. The mill was a large one, and was valued at $500,000. The loss will probably be upward of $100,000, the loss of which is covered by insurance.

A man named Frank Stoker was perhaps fatally injured by a horse on the night of the 20th inst. He was coupling an engine to a freight car on a Missouri Pacific track, and his head was caught and crushed. He had been reading but about two months.

While five men in the prison at the State Prison at Lansing, Mich., were overtaken by an East bound night express near the Canadian border, three jumped off safely, the other two were thrown with the car into a ditch. Jerry Ryan was killed instantly and his brother fatally injured.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stahler, of No. 435 West Huron street, Chicago, succeeded recently by hanging.

The child of Lewis Walker, of Dayton, Ohio, was killed by the meeting of the street.

John W. Wetzel and Bill, of Racine (Wis.), having engaged in a race for a vessel the night of the 20th inst. The race continued for some miles, when the boiler of the vessel exploded, throwing the entire upper works and bodies of the crew in the air, striking together with the hull of the craft. The crew of the vessel consisted of Capt. Frank Lovell, Race Engineer, Wm. Kelly, Chicago, Fireman, and John W. Wetzel, of Racine, Wis. The vessel was a medium-sized harbor tug, valued at $5,000.

The jury in the Mrs. Scoville insanity case at Chicago, declared her to be insane, and that insanity was hereditary in her family. After the verdict was given, the jury was informed that some of her friends had brought their intention of taking her off to Canada.

Trucks, near, suffered from a disastrous fire on the night of the 20th inst. Among the buildings destroyed were the American Hotel, Sherburne House and Old Fellows' Building. The loss will probably be upward of $100,000, the loss of which is covered by insurance.

A special from Washington says: "The three-story brick building of the Bank of Montreal, also occupied by the general offices of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was damaged by fire to the extent of $100,000; Railroad company's loss, $40,000.

Frank A. Crowl, Assistant Postmaster at Wallersburg, Pa., has been arrested for rifling registered letters. There have been very heavy losses in registered mail in transit through that office.

Fire caused by spontaneous combustion destroyed two manufacturing buildings employing fifty hands at the Wellington House at Jamestown, N. Y.

The Flint Mill at Fall River, Mass., was completely destroyed by fire on the evening of the 20th. When first discovered the flames were issuing from the loft of the main mill, and the fire spread rapidly to the upper story, and in less than half an hour the entire mill was in flames. The mill was a large one, and was valued at $500,000. The loss will probably be upward of $100,000, the loss of which is covered by insurance.

A man named Frank Stoker was perhaps fatally injured by a horse on the night of the 20th inst. He was coupling an engine to a freight car on a Missouri Pacific track, and his head was caught and crushed. He had been reading but about two months.

While five men in the prison at the State Prison at Lansing, Mich., were overtaken by an East bound night express near the Canadian border, three jumped off safely, the other two were thrown with the car into a ditch. Jerry Ryan was killed instantly and his brother fatally injured.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stahler, of No. 435 West Huron street, Chicago, succeeded recently by hanging.

The child of Lewis Walker, of Dayton, Ohio, was killed by the meeting of the street.

John W. Wetzel and Bill, of Racine (Wis.), having engaged in a race for a vessel the night of the 20th inst. The race continued for some miles, when the boiler of the vessel exploded, throwing the entire upper works and bodies of the crew in the air, striking together with the hull of the craft. The crew of the vessel consisted of Capt. Frank Lovell, Race Engineer, Wm. Kelly, Chicago, Fireman, and John W. Wetzel, of Racine, Wis. The vessel was a medium-sized harbor tug, valued at $5,000.

The jury in the Mrs. Scoville insanity case at Chicago, declared her to be insane, and that insanity was hereditary in her family. After the verdict was given, the jury was informed that some of her friends had brought their intention of taking her off to Canada.

Trucks, near, suffered from a disastrous fire on the night of the 20th inst. Among the buildings destroyed were the American Hotel, Sherburne House and Old Fellows' Building. The loss will probably be upward of $100,000, the loss of which is covered by insurance.

A special from Washington says: "The three-story brick building of the Bank of Montreal, also occupied by the general offices of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was damaged by fire to the extent of $100,000; Railroad company's loss, $40,000.

Frank A. Crowl, Assistant Postmaster at Wallersburg, Pa., has been arrested for rifling registered letters. There have been very heavy losses in registered mail in transit through that office.

Fire caused by spontaneous combustion destroyed two manufacturing buildings employing fifty hands at the Wellington House at Jamestown, N. Y.

The Flint Mill at Fall River, Mass., was completely destroyed by fire on the evening of the 20th. When first discovered the flames were issuing from the loft of the main mill, and the fire spread rapidly to the upper story, and in less than half an hour the entire mill was in flames. The mill was a large one, and was valued at $500,000. The loss will probably be upward of $100,000, the loss of which is covered by insurance.

A man named Frank Stoker was perhaps fatally injured by a horse on the night of the 20th inst. He was coupling an engine to a freight car on a Missouri Pacific track, and his head was caught and crushed. He had been reading but about two months.

While five men in the prison at the State Prison at Lansing, Mich., were overtaken by an East bound night express near the Canadian border, three jumped off safely, the other two were thrown with the car into a ditch. Jerry Ryan was killed instantly and his brother fatally injured.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stahler, of No. 435 West Huron street, Chicago, succeeded recently by hanging.

The child of Lewis Walker, of Dayton, Ohio, was killed by the meeting of the street.

John W. Wetzel and Bill, of Racine (Wis.), having engaged in a race for a vessel the night of the 20th inst. The race continued for some miles, when the boiler of the vessel exploded, throwing the entire upper works and bodies of the crew in the air, striking together with the hull of the craft. The crew of the vessel consisted of Capt. Frank Lovell, Race Engineer, Wm. Kelly, Chicago, Fireman, and John W. Wetzel, of Racine, Wis. The vessel was a medium-sized harbor tug, valued at $5,000.

The jury in the Mrs. Scoville insanity case at Chicago, declared her to be insane, and that insanity was hereditary in her family. After the verdict was given, the jury was informed that some of her friends had brought their intention of taking her off to Canada.

Trucks, near, suffered from a disastrous fire on the night of the 20th inst. Among the buildings destroyed were the American Hotel, Sherburne House and Old Fellows' Building. The loss will probably be upward of $100,000, the loss of which is covered by insurance.

A special from Washington says: "The three-story brick building of the Bank of Montreal, also occupied by the general offices of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was damaged by fire to the extent of $100,000; Railroad company's loss, $40,000.

Frank A. Crowl, Assistant Postmaster at Wallersburg, Pa., has been arrested for rifling registered letters. There have been very heavy losses in registered mail in transit through that office.

Fire caused by spontaneous combustion destroyed two manufacturing buildings employing fifty hands at the Wellington House at Jamestown, N. Y.

The Flint Mill at Fall River, Mass., was completely destroyed by fire on the evening of the 20th. When first discovered the flames were issuing from the loft of the main mill, and the fire spread rapidly to the upper story, and in less than half an hour the entire mill was in flames. The mill was a large one, and was valued at $500,000. The loss will probably be upward of $100,000, the loss of which is covered by insurance.

A man named Frank Stoker was perhaps fatally injured by a horse on the night of the 20th inst. He was coupling an engine to a freight car on a Missouri Pacific track, and his head was caught and crushed. He had been reading but about two months.

While five men in the prison at the State Prison at Lansing, Mich., were overtaken by an East bound night express near the Canadian border, three jumped off safely, the other two were thrown with the car into a ditch. Jerry Ryan was killed instantly and his brother fatally injured.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stahler, of No. 435 West Huron street, Chicago, succeeded recently by hanging.

The child of Lewis Walker, of Dayton, Ohio, was killed by the meeting of the street.

John W. Wetzel and Bill, of Racine (Wis.), having engaged in a race for a vessel the night of the 20th inst. The race continued for some miles, when the boiler of the vessel exploded, throwing the entire upper works and bodies of the crew in the air, striking together with the hull of the craft. The crew of the vessel consisted of Capt. Frank Lovell, Race Engineer, Wm. Kelly, Chicago, Fireman, and John W. Wetzel, of Racine, Wis. The vessel was a medium-sized harbor tug, valued at $5,000.

The jury in the Mrs. Scoville insanity case at Chicago, declared her to be insane, and that insanity was hereditary in her family. After the verdict was given, the jury was informed that some of her friends had brought their intention of taking her off to Canada.

Trucks, near, suffered from a disastrous fire on the night of the 20th inst. Among the buildings destroyed were the American Hotel, Sherburne House and Old Fellows' Building. The loss will probably be upward of $100,000, the loss of which is covered by insurance.

A special from Washington says: "The three-story brick building of the Bank of Montreal, also occupied by the general offices of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was damaged by fire to the extent of $100,000; Railroad company's loss, $40,000.

Frank A. Crowl, Assistant Postmaster at Wallersburg, Pa., has been arrested for rifling registered letters. There have been very heavy losses in registered mail in transit through that office.

Fire caused by spontaneous combustion destroyed two manufacturing buildings employing fifty hands at the Wellington House at Jamestown, N. Y.

The Flint Mill at Fall River, Mass., was completely destroyed by fire on the evening of the 20th. When first discovered the flames were issuing from the loft of the main mill, and the fire spread rapidly to the upper story, and in less than half an hour the entire mill was in flames. The mill was a large one, and was valued at $500,000. The loss will probably be upward of $100,000, the loss of which is covered by insurance.

A man named Frank Stoker was perhaps fatally injured by a horse on the night of the 20th inst. He was coupling an engine to a freight car on a Missouri Pacific track, and his head was caught and crushed. He had been reading but about two months.

While five men in the prison at the State Prison at Lansing, Mich., were overtaken by an East bound night express near the Canadian border, three jumped off safely, the other two were thrown with the car into a ditch. Jerry Ryan was killed instantly and his brother fatally injured.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stahler, of No. 435 West Huron street, Chicago, succeeded recently by hanging.

The child of Lewis Walker, of Dayton, Ohio, was killed by the meeting of the street.

John W. Wetzel and Bill, of Racine (Wis.), having engaged in a race for a vessel the night of the 20th inst. The race continued for some miles, when the boiler of the vessel exploded, throwing the entire upper works and bodies of the crew in the air, striking together with the hull of the craft. The crew of the vessel consisted of Capt. Frank Lovell, Race Engineer, Wm. Kelly, Chicago, Fireman, and John W. Wetzel, of Racine, Wis. The vessel was a medium-sized harbor tug, valued at $5,000.

The jury in the Mrs. Scoville insanity case at Chicago, declared her to be insane, and that insanity was hereditary in her family. After the verdict was given, the jury was informed that some of her friends had brought their intention of taking her off to Canada.

Trucks, near, suffered from a disastrous fire on the night of the 20th inst. Among the buildings destroyed were the American Hotel, Sherburne House and Old Fellows' Building. The loss will probably be upward of $100,000, the loss of which is covered by insurance.

A special from Washington says: "The three-story brick building of the Bank of Montreal, also occupied by the general offices of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was damaged by fire to the extent of $100,000; Railroad company's loss, $40,000.

Frank A. Crowl, Assistant Postmaster at Wallersburg, Pa., has been arrested for rifling registered letters. There have been very heavy losses in registered mail in transit through that office.

Fire caused by spontaneous combustion destroyed two manufacturing buildings employing fifty hands at the Wellington House at Jamestown, N. Y.

A SINGULAR DUEL.

Two Young Farmers of North Carolina Fight Their Lives with Barrels and Whips as Weapons—Both Combatants Horribly Gashed.

A bloody, cruel and novel duel was fought this morning in the lower end of Guilford between John H. Smith and John W. Jones, two young farmers of that section, and rivals for the affection of a young lady. Had feelings been allowed to run their course, the two would have been killed by the time the duel was over.

In a dispute about attorney's fees at Nicholson, Ky., recently, George B. Letcher, a young attorney, shot and killed Edward E. Letcher, a young physician.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges a committee of five, consisting of the following names: John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones, John H. Smith, John W. Jones.

The Directors of the National Mineral and Industrial Exposition, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, the first Wednesday in September, 1883, have selected as judges